

Candidate-friendly landing pages

Though our branded templates are designed to meet the needs of job seekers first, we did not forget the needs of recruiters. You can customize the response mechanism for each job – our "Express Interest" forms can include filtering questions and are OFCCP compliant. Need to promote an event? No problem. We can add a banner to do just that. And we can easily embed a video to bring your brand story to life.

Landing Pages

Search on Every Page

Keep job seekers engaged. Make it easy for them to refine their search from the job details page.

Navigation

You can use your existing career site navigation or create your own content pages.

Video

The best way to tell your brand story.

Your Unique Employment Proposition

Include an "elevator speech" about why someone should work with you. Highlight your accolades visually.

Promotions

Incorporate your own promotional banners. Think open houses and special announcements.
